Department of Emergency Services
Rutgers Public Safety Building
55 Commercial Avenue
New Brunswick, New Jersey 08901
732-932-4800
Rutgers University Emergency Services employs approximately 30 students to perform monthly life safety testing in residence halls. Student Emergency Service Officers (ESOs) inspect almost 8,000 Fire Extinguishers, Emergency Signs/Lighting, Sprinkler Valves, and Local Smoke Detectors every month.

Emergency Services also employs student Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs). EMTs cover a wide variety of University events including sports programs. They provide mutual aid to surrounding municipalities and respond to all emergency medical service calls University-wide.

Requirements:
- Must be a NJ State Certified Firefighter 1
- Must be a student of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
- Must have a drivers license valid for use in the State of New Jersey

RUES performs hiring of students and per-diem EMT’s as well as student ESO positions on an as needed basis throughout the year. Becoming an ESO or an EMT can open the door to careers in emergency services and emergency management by providing the valuable hands-on experience that appeals to many public and private agencies. The Division of Administration & Public Safety offers competitive hourly rates of $10/hour for ESOs and $12/hour for EMTs.

If you are interested in a position as a per diem or student EMT or an ESO please submit your resume to es@aps.rutgers.edu.
